LIBRARY CODE OF CONDUCT

STUDENT USE OF THE LIBRARY - GUIDELINES FOR RESPONSIBLE USE

Use of the Library is a privilege extended to Sinclair students to support learning and promote academic success. Through the Library, the college provides students with access to computers, laptops, books, periodicals, study space, tutors and other academic help, comfortable seating, and formal and informal learning spaces. Students are expected to follow college rules defined in the Student Affairs Judicial Code of Conduct Handbook, guidelines, and honour code to maintain their good standing and continue to receive library privileges.

- 1. In the Library's course reserve program, college faculty place important readings and media in a special collection to assure all students have access to critical information to complete assignments. Most reserve materials are designated for "Library Use Only" and may not be removed from the library. Library reserves are an extension of the classroom, and the faculty and librarians share information about students and borrowed library materials and work together to supervise their use.
- 2. Students are expected to behave in a civil manner that does not interfere with other people using the facility. Excessive displays of affection, wrestling, and similar physical contact activities are considered a disturbance.
- 3. Students are encouraged to use the facility for individual and group work, but students who participate in groups that become disruptive through excessive noise or other disruptive behaviours will be held accountable, individually and collectively, for the group's actions.
- 4. Talking in a normal voice that does not disturb others or quiet cell phone use is permitted in all parts of the library except the Quiet Reading Room.

- 5. Playing musical instruments as well as music from smartphones, tablets, and similar devices without headphones are considered a disturbance.
- 6. Students are expected to leave the furniture, equipment, and facilities in good condition for the next person's use.
- 7. Food and drink are permitted in the library in disposable containers, and students are expected to clean up any resulting trash and notify staff of any spills. Trays and dishes from Market Place are not permitted.
- 8. Students are expected to follow directions or instructions of library and college staff.
- 9. Students borrowing materials (books, laptops, or media) are responsible for returning them on time and in the same condition as when borrowed.
- 10. Students may not remove materials designated for "Library Use Only" from the facility. This includes laptops, course reserves, and any other library property so designated.
- 11. Students are responsible for paying any fines incurred for overdue, lost, or damaged materials charged to their library and college accounts.
- 12. Students are not permitted to share their Tartan Card with anyone or download or share information with non-Sinclair students.
- 13. Students are expected to obey copyright laws and applicable software licenses.
- 14. Students are expected to follow the policy on Appropriate Use of Information Technology.
- 15. Students who violate these guidelines may lose their library privileges, have an academic HOLD placed on future registration and be referred to Student Conduct. Students who take library material without permission or do not return borrowed material can be charged with a crime.
